Ancestral Inner Healing

R E T R E A T

Does “time heal all wounds?” This is not true. Christ heals all wounds. If there is lingering family sin, trauma, addiction, violence or unresolved death it needs to be dealt with through the sacraments of reconciliation and the Eucharist. This should be as natural for Catholics as going to the doctor. Come, learn and experience the overwhelming desire of God the Father to free your family lineage from trauma and the sins of generations.
